17.051 - Trailer coach, trailer coach park defined.

Sec. 5.80.

- (1) A "trailer coach" is herein defined as any vehicle whether self-propelled or drawn by another vehicle, used and maintained for use, or originally designed and intended for use as a conveyance upon the streets and highways, and so designed, constructed or modified as to permit occupancy thereof as a dwelling or sleeping place for one or more persons.
- (2) A "trailer coach park" is defined, as it is defined in Act 243 of the Public Acts of 1959, as amended.

(Title V, Chap. 34 eff. July 22, 1962)

17.052 - Trailer parks.

Sec. 5.81. Trailer coach parks, and/or individual trailer coach sites, may be established within the City in any suitable and in any permissible area which may be provided in any Zoning Ordinance hereinafter adopted, or, until such time as a Zoning Ordinance is adopted, in any area approved by the City Council, and complying with provisions of Act 243 of the Public Acts of 1959, as amended.

(Title V, Chap. 34 eff. July 22, 1962)

17.053 - Trailer coaches; where permitted.

Sec. 5.82. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firm or corporation to keep or maintain any trailer coach used for human habitation on any lot, piece or parcel of ground including public property within the City limits except in trailer coach parks regularly licensed by the City in accordance with the terms of Act 243 of the Public Acts of 1959, or unless such trailer coach is located on an approved trailer coach site as provided in Section 5.81 [17.052].

17.054 - Removal of wheels.

Sec. 5.83. No owner or occupant of any trailer coach shall remove or deflate the wheels or tires or cause the same to be removed or deflated from any such occupied vehicle within the City limits except for purposes of repair, nor shall he in any way erect, block or stabilize such vehicle except that these provisions shall not apply to regularly licensed trailer coach parks.

(Title V, Chap. 34 eff. July 22, 1962)

17.055 - Prospective effect.

Sec. 5.84. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to trailer coaches used for human habitation before the effective date of this Code.
